

Douglas Bostock – Conductor Recordings of British Music

This is a list of CD recordings of British music conducted by Douglas Bostock, mainly since 1997. Orchestrations of other composers' music are listed under both composers but counted only once. The number of compositions (at the time of compilation) is 185, of which 82 are world premiere recordings. Some works have been recorded more than once. The total number of recordings of British compositions is over 200.

George Frederic Handel is included in the list based on the fact that he settled in Great Britain, spent most of his life there and became a naturalized citizen. Although Percy Grainger was born in the British overseas territory of Australia (formerly, the Empire), he finds his place in this discography from having lived in the UK and in consideration of his extensive and pioneering work in the field of British folk song,

Douglas Bostock wishes to thank Lewis Foreman for his great support regarding repertoire and for providing liner notes for many of the CD booklets. Furthermore, without the wonderful cooperation of the orchestras, soloists, recording teams, and record labels this discography of British music would not have been possible.

In addition to the CD recordings, there are many live performances of Douglas Bostock conducting a wide variety of British repertoire to be found on YouTube, as well as informal CD recordings and compilations.

Furthermore, Douglas Bostock has championed British music in the concert hall since his student days in the early 1970s and has conducted hundreds of performances in Europe, Asia and North America. He also regularly includes British music in his conducting teaching in many countries.
